

TASTE MAGAZINE

4TH ANNIVERSARY HOLIDAY ISSUE

as seen in...

Taste Magazine, Food Emporium's flagship publication, asked Diane Gordon to write a piece on how to create a distinct Thanksgiving ambience. The editors selected Diane for their holiday issue because of her lifestyle and entertaining expertise. The quarterly magazine incorporates articles and recipes from celebrity chefs such as Mario Batali, Daniel Boulud and Jean-Georges Vongerichten. Diane's tips, from do ahead planning to final touches, added a new "Entertaining In Style" feature for the perfect Thanksgiving dinner.

In the early 90's, Diane Gordon traded in a law degree for a chef's toque and a sharp set of knives, leaving a top New York law firm to study cooking in France and Italy. She got her first big break from Top Chef's Tom Colicchio when he hired her as assistant saucier at Mondrian Restaurant. Diane established her own gourmet catering business in 1993. In addition to catering some of Manhattan's most elegant fetes, Diane has extensive experience as a food stylist, notably for Sex & The City as well as dozens of motion picture films. Diane was recently inducted into Les Dames d'Escoffier and has served for several years as a judge for the James Beard Foundation Cookbook Awards.

Further information, sample menus and photos can be found on Diane's website - www.dianegordoncatering.com.

